Poems You Ought to Know

er your occupation may be, and however crowded your hours s. do not fail to seeme at least a few minutes every day for it of your inner life with a bit of poetry.—Prof. Charles Ellot

One day I wrote her name upon the strand.

But came the waves and washed it away;
Again I wrote it with a second hand.

But same the tide, and made my pains his prey.
Vain mant said she, that doth in vain assay
A mertal thing so to immertalize.

For I myself shall like to this decay.

And the my hope is wheat our likewise.
